

MILK DRIVER AIDS POLICE IN NABBING ALLEGED BURGLARS

Turns Wagon, Hat and Jumper Over to Patrolman on Seeing Men at Store Door.

Paul Bernstein, a milkman, the police say, enabled three policemen at 4:20 o'clock this morning to trap an equal number of burglars trying to break into No. 48 West Eighth Street, where Edward Belucci, a wholesale importer of Italian delicacies, has his shop.

Bernstein was driving his milk wagon in Eighth Street when he saw two men at work on the door and a third man posted as lookout. He drove on to Sixth Avenue and told Policeman Stewart, Stewart instructed him to drive to Tenth Street, then over to Fifth Avenue to get two more policemen. Bernstein notified Policemen Abramson and McMahon. Abramson posted himself at the Fifth Avenue intersection; Stewart guarded the Sixth Avenue end, and Stewart put on the milkman's hat and jumper and got in the wagon. The milkman crouched in the bottom of the wagon.

When the wagon stopped in front of the store, the men at the door evidently saw the blue trousers of the policeman showing beneath the jumper worn by Policeman Stewart. There was a scramble to get away. Policeman Lewis shot twice and a youth giving the name of Joseph Ferino, eighteen, No. 46 Carmen Street, stopped.

At Fifth Avenue Police Abramson nabbed Lewis Carlo, eighteen, of No. 432 Broadway. At the Sixth Avenue intersection Policeman Stewart greeted Michael Vallinote, twenty, of No. 109 Thompson Street. In Vallinote's clothes the police say they found a jimmy which fitted the niches in the lock on the door of the importer's store.

BRITAIN SEEKS PACT WITH U. S. ON PACIFIC

Would Substitute It for Present Anglo-Japanese Treaty, Paris Hears.

PARIS, July 8 (United Press)—England has made overtures to the American Government looking toward an Anglo-American Pacific alliance which the British Government desires as a substitute for the present Anglo-Japanese pact which expires in 1921, according to officials at the French Foreign Office to-day.

It was believed that unless the United States is willing to enter such an agreement with Great Britain, the Japanese alliance will be renewed, with the insertion of a clause specifically stipulating that England will never go to war against the United States. Australia and New Zealand were reported pressing the British Government for an agreement with America in regard to the Pacific.
